Accomplished Attorney Joins Mobility Authority Staff

(Austin, Texas) – Andrew Martin has joined the Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority to serve as General Counsel for the agency. A graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, Martin is currently Counsel with Brown McCarroll, LLP.

A highly regarded attorney with more than 30 years of experience, Martin brings a wealth of expertise in municipal law including land development, zoning, strategic advice and policy development and management. Over the years, Martin has served in numerous executive level positions including San Antonio City Attorney, Austin City Attorney, General Counsel for the Texas Ethics Commission and Assistant City Attorney for the City of Austin Law Department. Martin also has considerable experience in the private sector.

At the Mobility Authority, Martin will be responsible for a wide range of legal matters such as policy review, public records compliance, procurement and contracting, property acquisition and review of legislation. He will also be responsible for the conduct of all Mobility Authority Board meetings and will ensure that all policy decisions made by the Board of Directors comply with legal requirements and are properly documented.

"Andy Martin is an excellent attorney and an incredible addition to our staff," says Mobility Authority Executive Director Mike Heiligenstein. "I frequently interacted with Andy during his time as Austin's City Attorney. I was extremely impressed by his work, and he is highly regarded. His breadth of experience will be extremely valuable to our agency."

About the Mobility Authority

The Central Texas Regional Mobility Authority is a local, independent government agency created to improve the regional transportation system. Our mission is to implement innovative solutions that reduce congestion and create transportation choices that enhance quality of life and economic vitality. The Mobility Authority currently operates the 183A toll road in Williamson County and is currently working to extend the 183A project and construct the US 290 East (Manor Expressway) project.
